ITINERARY

Day 1 : DAILY TURKISH VILLAGE TOUR BODRUM

Lunch Included

Anybody who has travelled extensively will tell you that the Turks are the friendliest people in the world. The authentic villages located inlands can help you to examine the different aspects of the same region. Even, half an hour distance makes a big change of environment, colors, sounds as well as the lifestyle of people. Walking through small streets, visiting a village house, the hot welcome of the village chief, watching women weaving carpets, the cemetery, the mosque, children shouting 'hello', the coffee house where men sit around and laze away the day while drinking their tea chatting and playing games will all be helpful to understand their life.

In the end, a short exhibition of carpets weaved by the young ladies of the village will take place.
