Day 1 : DAILY TROY DANCE SHOW ANTALYA

Welcome to Turkey. Meet with TravelShop Turkey staff. Pick up from hotels around 19:00-19:30. Troy is as old as the stories in the Sacred Book... Historical Ilion or “Wilusa” city, as named by the Hittites, located in Hisarlık region of Canakkale and founded thousands years ago has served as basis for many ancient myth... for one of the oldest and most known stories of the history of humankind, where the dreams and truth, science and utopia diffuse into each other. Western civilization is more indebted to the myth of Troy than anything else for its cultural inheritance.

This story, believed to have taken place in 1180 BC, was written into the memory of humanity by an Anatolian Poet. The story was recorded by Homeros, born in Izmir, in his immortal books of Iliada and Odysseia, which have taken their place amongst the best known compositions in the world. These stories and books have a huge much importance in history and have fascinated historians for many years. Many of these adventures have been rewritten and revisited in books and films, the ancient myths fascinating people from all over the world.
