Pick up between 08:30 - 09:30 from your hotel in Ankara City Center. After about 1 – 1.5 hours' drive, we reach BEYPAZARI and our first stop is HIDIRLIK HILL, a very nice place overlooking the town which offers good spots for photos. After that, we drive to downtown and visit two museums, HAMAM (Turkish bath) MUSEUM reflecting the traditional bath culture in Turkey, and LIVING MUSEUM which shows the traditional life and art in the region. After the museums, we will visit ALAEDDIN MOSQUE from 7th century and we head to LOCAL FOOD MARKET. Here, you will have free time where you can see local food like carrots (Beypazar? is well known with its carrots), sundried fruits, biscuits, homemade baklava as well as traditional “Beypazar? Kurusu” (a different type of dried bread), stuffed leaves and very special local handicrafts like needle lace, embroidery, copperware, and wood carving.
