After lunch you will depart to city center for free time and shopping before return your hotel. After the tour drop back to your hotel. Overnight in Burdur.

Day 4 : Turkish Bath

Breakfast Included

Turkish Bath, called “hamam” in Turkish which has been present in Turkey for thousands of years.

The tradition of the Turkish bath extends far back, to a time before Turks had reached Anatolia.

When the Turks arrived in Anatolia, they brought with them a bathing tradition and were confronted with another, that of Romans and Byzantines, with certain local variants.

After we pick you up from your hotel, we will take you to one of the traditional Baths in Burdur, which has historical buildings. There is a few main procedures during the bath. When you arrive, the staff will provide you a cubicle in which you take off your clothes and wear the waist cloth. After changing, you will be taken to the Sicaklik (Hot Room) of the Turkish Bath that would help your muscles loosen up and you will continue to the warm room of the bath, The staff (tellak for men and natir for women) will scrub you down using Turkish soap and a special cloth that gets out all your old skin blocking your pores.

Once you are finished, you will be taken to the Sogukluk (Cold Room) and given towels to wrap yourself in.

Then, you can pay for having a massage or you can just relax and order some tea or other drinks as you would like. As last, after you get dressed, you will feel your skin renewed like a baby skin. That's the magic of Turkish bath. Overnight in Burdur.

Day 5 : Isparta Lavender Fields Tour

We begin our journey to discover our guests the natural wonders of the Lake District and to experience its historical texture. We go to Kuyucak village of Keçiborlu district of Isparta to find peace in the wonderful color and smell of lavenders. When it comes to lavender fields, the first place that comes to mind becomes the Provans region of France. However, in Kuyucak village of Keçiborlu district of Isparta, candidates for the throne of Provans. Isparta is mostly known as the land of roses. Isparta is also a paradise where you can travel to the heart of lavender fields. We are captivated by the lavender gardens and photographing them. Also, our participants can cut lavender.

After our trip to the lavender gardens, those who wish will have the opportunity to purchase the lavender products (oil, water, soap, tea, etc.), lavender honey and other village products produced by the villagers. After our trip between traditional Kuyucak houses consisting of adobe, stone and wooden structures, we move to Isparta. When we reach the city center, after the person who brought the rose to Isparta, seeing and photographing the Gülcü İsmail Efendi Statue, Süleyman Demirel Statue and the famous Rose Sculpture, you can make your shopping such as the famous Rose Water, Rose Delight and Rose Soap. After completing our shopping, we end our tour and return to our hotel. Overnight in Burdur.
