After visiting Bedesten (Grand Bazaar) in the immediate vicinity, we visit the Green Tomb and Green Mosque, which are famous for their green tiles, and have a nice tea break. We move to the tombs of Osman Gazi and Orhan Gazi, the founders of the Ottoman Empire.

Then we visit the Bursa City Museum, which reflects the history of Bursa during the Ottoman and Republican eras. Afterwards, we give a tea break at the 600-year-old Historical Plane Tree, which is on the outskirts of Uluda?, and complete our trip and head out to Istanbul.
