ITINERARY

Day 1 : DAILY ELAZIG HARPUT TOUR

We will pick you up from the hotel in the morning. We will visit today:

Elazig, Turkey's Elazig province, the center of the city. It is located in the Upper Euphrates Section of the Eastern Anatolia Region.

Harput Castle was built by the Urartu Kingdom. Later, the castle, which went between Part, Rome, Sassanid, Byzantine and Abbasids, was taken over by the Ottoman Empire by Yavuz Sultan Selim. Also, Belek Gazi was captured here. Various legends are told about Harput Castle. It provides the narration of the "Milk Castle".

Keban Dam:The dam was built on the Euphrates River between 1965 and 1975. Keban Dam, Atatürk Dam after Turkey's 2nd largest lake Harput Great Mosque:It was built by Haruk in 1156 - 1157 by Artuklu Ruler Fahrettin Karaaslan. The curvature of the minaret is more than the Leaning Tower of Pisa..

Elazig Buzluk Cave: Due to the underground air flow in the cave, winters are hot and summers are ice cold. In summer, ice forms in the cave. In the olden times, the people of this region used to bring the ice they took out of the cave in summer to Harput on animal backs and make money.

Elazig Archeology and Ethnography Museum:It was founded as "Harput Museum" in Alacal? Masjid in Harput neighborhood on April 30, 1965. In 1971, the construction of a new museum was initiated in the F?rat University Faculty of Engineering, and it was opened to service as Elaz?? Archeology and Ethnography Museum in 1971 for the surveys and excavations of the Keban and Karakaya Dam projects, and the display and preservation of works belonging to the ages before the era. The museum building consists of three sections: archaeological artifacts and coin hall, carpet and rug gallery and ethnography hal

Three Bowl Fountain:It is located on the left at the entrance in Harput. It is near A?a Mosque. The fountain made with cut stone is of an iwan type. The iwan arch is round, there are moon-stars on it and palmette motifs on the edges. According to the book, it was built in 1324 (1906)

Kurshunlu Mosque:It is one of the best examples of Ottoman Period mosques in Harput. It was built between 1738 and 1739. The mosque has a rectangular plan. The square planned harim section is covered with a dome. The dome pulley has four windows. It got this name because its domes were covered with lead. The last congregation place of the mosque has three domes. Its minaret is made of cut stone.

Virgin Mary Church It is located to the east of the Harput Castle. Since the west wall constitutes the rock masses of the castle, the church seems to be buried in the rocks of the castle. It is also known as the Virgin Mary Church, Red Church, Syriac Church and Yakubi Church, which are one of the oldest temples in Anatolia.
