After having our breakfast in the morning, we set off towards Karsa and our first stop is 1001 church cities that are added to the Unesco World Heritage list. The "Ruins of Ani", which has been frequently named in history and has become the capital of Armenians ... The population of this important settlement established on the Arpaçay coast, which forms our border with Armenia, is over 100,000. a thousand years ago. Today it is a ruin when hosting.

While the churches of churches and cathedrals made of volcanic colored stones on the snow will amaze you, it will allow you to take beautiful pictures of the landscape covering the Arpaçay and the border of Armenia, the first mosque that Turks built in Anatolia. After visiting the important works such as the Keseli Church, the Picture Church, the Great Cathedral (Fethiye Mosque), the Walls, the Lion Gate, the Emir Manuçehr Mosque and seeing the Seljuk Palace from the outside, the wilderness is known for keeping ice in the winter months, and it is possible to take horse-sleigh tours. We are moving towards Lake. Here we start our trip after taking our lunch. In Ç?ld?r Lake, we will have the opportunity to watch the fish they call Yellow Fish (carp). After our tour, we move to Kars city center. Our first stop is Fethiye Mosque, which was built as a church made of cut stone during the Russian occupation and turned into a mosque with the restoration of Kars. Then we go to the Apostles Church (Kümbet Mosque). After seeing and photographing a thousand-year-old masterpiece known as the 12 Apostle symbols and used as a church or mosque from time to time, we go to Kars Castle. At this point where the whole city can be seen under your feet, we warm ourselves with the teas that we will drink against the view of the city of Kars and complete our visit to the Lovers House, which will help us get to know us. We end our tour and return to our hotel. Overnight in Erzurum.
