ITINERARY

Day 1 : Daily Sirnak Historical Ruins Tour

Pick you up at 08.30 from your hotel for a daily ruins tour. Today you will learn many interesting stories about Shyrnak and the culture of the area. Bazebede Ruins Bazebede Ruins, located on the border of Cizre district in Sirnak province, is a historical place before Christ. This ancient city, located on the banks of the Tigris River, remained on the Syrian border as a result of the river changing beds. Here, there are ruins belonging to the first era and a historical bridge. Kasrik Ruins - 30th km of Sirnak-Cizre highway. Kasrik Ruins, which is located on Sirnak, was referred to as “Sazirka” during the Guti period. Located in a strait, there are historical water dams, sculptures and city ruins. It is known that Cizre and Finik Beys used this region as a summer residence.

Around 17:00 – 18.00 we will depart back to your hotel.
