ITINERARY

Day 1 : Daily Tekirdag Historical City Tour

Pick you up at 08.30 from your hotel for a daily tour of Tekirdag.

Hoskoy is a cute settlement in the district of Sarkoy in Tekirdag. It is located 20 km from the center of Sarkoy. Hoskoy, known as Hora in Greek, was largely home to the Greek population during the Ottoman era. Hoskoy is also home to the Hora Fener (Lighthouse), built by the French in 1861 by Sultan Abdulmecit. People of Hoskoy generally make their living from olive and grape growing. It is always possible to find fresh fish in Hoskoy. Because the biggest and most important fishermen's shelter of the region is located here. In addition to the vintage tours, the region where the paragliding and trekking tours increase gradually offers different experiences to those who want to be in touch with nature and the sea. Then continue to Hagios Ionnis Theologos Monastery The project tender for the Hagios Ioannis Theologos Monastery, registered on the 4238-4239 parcel in Hoskoy District of Sarkoy District of Tekirdag Province, was launched on 12-10-2015. The settlement, known as Ganohora and dating back to the 1st century, is known to be one of the important religious centers for the Christian world with its churches and monasteries in the Middle Ages. Sources show that 6 monasteries were operating in Ganohora in the past. When the land of one of these monasteries, many of which are now extinct, was put up for sale by the Treasury in 1955, it was taken by the Çetinta? family. It's called 'St. This monastery, which is Ioannis Theologos, is the only remnant of the monasteries in the region.
