The Hagia Sophia, previously known as the Church of Divine Wisdom, is simply The best of its kind! Hagia Sophia is the greatest surviving example of Byzantine Architecture. At its height the temple itself was so rich and artistically ornamented that then Roman Emperor Justinian proclaimed, Salomon I have surpassed you! Did you know that this is the most sacred temple of the Orthodox world? As you tour the museum, you will learn that and so much more. Your guide will be an expert on Byzantine history, art and architecture. They'll provide historical commentary as you learn about the Nika Revolt, Emperor Justinian, Empress Theodora, 6th century Byzantine General Belisarius and the Councils of Ecumenical Church.
